APPLICATION FOR NON-STANDARD TEST ACCOMMODATIONS (NTA)

Please be advised This application should be used if you are requesting NTA on the New York bar examination and/or New York Law Exam (NYLE) and have not previously been granted NTA by the New York State Board of Law Examiners (Board), or you were previously granted NTA but have not taken the bar examination and/or NYLE in the past three (3) years. Please refer to the instructions which accompany this application and the Test Accommodations Handbook, including the Documentation Guidelines for Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder, Documentation Guidelines for Learning and Other Cognitive Disabilities, Documentation Guidelines for Physical and Chronic Health Disabilities, Documentation Guidelines for Psychiatric Disabilities, and Documentation Guidelines for Visual Disabilities, when completing this application. To be timely, the completed application with all required documents must be received in the Board's office or filed electronically via the Applicant Services Portal by the application deadline. This is NOT a "postmarked by" deadline and faxing or emailing your application does not satisfy the filing requirement.

Introductory Information

You must have a Board of Law Examiners ("BOLE") identification number to complete this application. If you do not have a BOLE identification number, you must create one at the Applicant Services Portal (available at <https://portal.nybarexam.org/>).

1. BOLE ID: _____
2. Last Name: _____ First Name: _____ Middle Name: _____
3. I confirm that my current residential and email address (and correspondence address, if different from residential) are on file with the Board, and understand that any change to any address must be made through the Applicant Services Portal (available at <https://portal.nybarexam.org/>):

Initial here to confirm: _____
4. Bar examination for which accommodations are requested (give month and year, e.g. "July 2024"):
5. NYLE for which accommodations are requested (month selected is for that month's next administration):

6. [deleted]

Disability Description and History

7. I am requesting accommodations on the basis of the following disability/disabilities.
Only those disabilities checked below will be considered by the Board:
- ☐ ADHD/ADD
☐ Hearing Disability
☐ Learning Disability (i.e. reading, writing)
☐ Physical Disability
☐ Psychiatric Disability
☐ Vision Disability
☐ Other (specify): _____
8. I was first professionally diagnosed with _____ (state diagnosis) at the age of _____ in _____ (year) by _____ (Name of Qualified Professional).
9. This diagnosis was most recently confirmed or reassessed at the age of _____ in _____ (year) by _____ (Name of Qualified Professional).

Test Accommodations Requested

10. List all accommodations you are requesting for the (a) New York bar examination and (b) NYLE. (If you are requesting additional testing time you must also answer question 11.)
- (a) New York Bar Examination (UBE) _____

- (b) NYLE _____

11. Additional testing time: Do you request extra testing time to take the bar exam and/or NYLE? † Yes † No
If yes, specify the amount requested for each session (e.g. 25%, 50%, or 100% of the standard testing time):
Note: For applicants awarded 50% or 100% additional testing time for all sessions of the bar examination, the order of the UBE will be MEE on Tuesday, MBE on Wednesday and Thursday, and MPT on Friday.
- MPT and MEE Sessions
AM (two MPT items – 3 hours): _____
PM (six MEE items – 3 hours): _____
- MBE Sessions
AM (100 multiple choice questions – 3 hours): _____
PM (100 multiple choice questions – 3 hours): _____
- NYLE
One online session (50 multiple choice questions – 2 hours): _____
12. Laptop Program (does not apply to NYLE): For the UBE, candidates have the choice of completing the MPT and MEE by laptop, or by handwriting. If laptop is desired, you must also check “Yes” on the general online bar examination application where it asks if you want to participate in the laptop program and timely follow all instructions and emails.
- I understand that for an in-person bar exam, I must register and timely complete all steps for the laptop program, or else I will have to handwrite the MEE and MPT _____
13. Test Center: For the UBE, the Board has three test centers for applicants receiving non-standard test accommodations: one in New York City, one in Albany, and one in Buffalo. First-time applicants who graduated with a Juris Doctor degree from a First or Second Department law school will be given first preference to available seats at the test center in New York City. First-time applicants who graduated with a Juris Doctor degree from a Third Department law school will be given first preference to available seats in Albany, and first-time applicants who graduated with a Juris Doctor degree from a Fourth Department law school will be given first preference to available seats in Buffalo. All other applicants, including all repeat applicants and all applicants attending law school outside of New York State, will be assigned to a test center where seats are available. Seating availability will not be known to the Board staff until approximately six weeks after the application period closes. Seating in a particular location for a previous administration of the exam does NOT guarantee the same seating location for a future exam. The Board does not pay for lodging or travel expenses for any applicant, including applicants granted accommodations. If you prefer a seat in one of the Board's three testing locations, that preference can be stated but receiving a seat in your preferred location is NOT guaranteed.

I prefer a seat in (check one, or leave blank if no preference): ☐ New York City ☐ Albany ☐ Buffalo

Supporting Documentation

19. Medical Documentation:
- A. Recent Medical Documentation. You must include a copy of a comprehensive written report from a qualified professional who conducted an individualized assessment and who gave the diagnosis which forms the basis for this request for test accommodations. The report must be recent and comply in all other respects with the Board's documentation guidelines (e.g. Documentation Guidelines for Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder, Documentation Guidelines for Learning and Other Cognitive Disabilities, Documentation Guidelines for Physical and Chronic Health Disabilities, Documentation Guidelines for Psychiatric Disabilities, and Documentation Guidelines for Visual Disabilities). If you are requesting accommodations on the basis of more than one disability, you must submit recent medical documentation to support each disability. We recommend that you provide a copy of the applicable documentation guidelines to your qualified professional before they prepare the report.
- B. Historical Documentation. If the application for test accommodations is based upon a condition commonly appearing although not always formally diagnosed in childhood, such as a learning disability, Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder, or other cognitive disorder, it is extremely helpful to include: documentation of your first formal diagnosis, and copies of any available historical documentation (i.e. report cards, IEPs, teacher comments, etc.) that can establish a childhood onset of symptoms and impairment.
20. Personal Statement: Provide a personal statement, no longer than 750 words, describing when you first became impaired by your disability, when you were first formally diagnosed, how your disability affects your daily life activities, including your educational and testing functioning, and how your disability affects your ability to take the bar examination under standard testing conditions, and explaining how each accommodation requested alleviates the impact of your disability. If English is a second or foreign language, please include the age at which you first began learning and speaking English.
21. Proof of Past Accommodations: Provide proof of past accommodations received, if any, for other bar exams, law school, college, secondary education, elementary education, and prior standardized examinations (i.e., LSAT, SAT, MPRE, TOEFL, etc.). If a request for accommodations was ever denied, provide a copy of the denial letter.
22. Test Scores and Transcripts. For applications based on Learning Disabilities, ADHD, or other cognitive disorders, provide copies of your score reports from prior standardized tests, and transcripts from all colleges and law schools attended. If English is a foreign or second language, provide any TOEFL scores received.
23. Prior or Concurrent Bar Examinations: If you have ever applied for a bar examination in any jurisdiction other than New York, or if you are applying for a concurrent bar examination, list each such jurisdiction and complete the information below.

Jurisdiction # 1 _____

Month and Year of Exam	_____
Accommodations Requested	_____
Accommodations Granted	_____
Did you pass?	_____

Jurisdiction # 2 _____

Month and Year of Exam	_____
Accommodations Requested	_____
Accommodations Granted	_____
Did you pass?	_____

24. Disciplinary Proceedings. Have you ever been found guilty of, or are you currently charged with or the subject of an investigation regarding, fraud, dishonesty or other misconduct in connection with the administration of a bar examination of any other jurisdiction? _ Yes _ No (check one)

If you checked “Yes” to the foregoing question, you must mail a separate statement to the Board setting forth the institution/jurisdiction, date(s) of incident, explanation of the circumstances, the stage of proceedings, the disposition, and any penalties imposed, for each matter.

Note: Make sure to complete the Certification, Authorization, and Release, and Checklist on the following pages.

Certification, Authorization, and Release

CERTIFICATION, AUTHORIZATION, AND RELEASE: By signing below and submitting this Application for Non-Standard Test Accommodations, I agree to and certify each of the following:

I am aware that it is my responsibility to submit a timely and complete application for test accommodations.

I understand that if my application is late or incomplete, it will be rejected and not considered.

All of the information and statements made by me in my application and supporting documentation are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

I understand that if any of my answers or statements to the Board are false, I may be subjected to such penalties as are provided by law and be subject to discipline pursuant to Board Rule 6000.13 (Fraud, Dishonesty and Other Misconduct).

In connection with this application for test accommodations and any future application for test accommodations I may submit to the Board, I authorize the New York State Board of Law Examiners (Board) to provide, at its discretion, a copy of any and all documentation that I submit in connection with the application, including any confidential medical records or information, to such persons and/or consultants as the Board may deem necessary to adequately evaluate my application for test accommodations.

If further information regarding the documentation that I have provided is needed, I authorize the Board to contact the professional(s) who diagnosed and/or treated my disability. I further authorize such professionals to communicate with the Board in this regard to provide such clarification and/or further information and documentation as the Board requires.

I authorize the Board to contact those entities which have provided me test accommodations or with whom I have a current application for test accommodations pending for the purpose of ascertaining what accommodations have been or will be granted or denied.

I further authorize such entities to communicate with the Board in this regard to provide such clarification and/or further information and documentation as the Board requires.

I hereby release, discharge, and exonerate the New York State Board of Law Examiners, its agents, and representatives and/or any person from any and all liabilities of every nature and kind arising out of the furnishing, inspection or receipt of medical records, documents, records and other information, or any investigation made by or on behalf of the Board.
